BariQ was awarded the MEWAR (Middle East Waste and Recycling) award, which recognizes BariQ as the Best Recycling Company that adopts the best recycling practices in alignment with global standards in the Middle East for 2019. The event was held in Dubai.

BariQ participated in StepUp competition held in AUC by Raya Holding. University students were presented with a challenge to help increase the collection rate of plastic wastes in Egypt.

25 teams participated in the competition, they got to visit BariQ's factory to better understand the recycling process and how it's done. After a lot of exerted efforts from the students, 3 finalist teams presented their ideas. The winning team was selected based on the feasibility and the application of their solution, and will be granted a 3 week program abroad.
